What's this newsletter all about?

Here's what you can expect from the Vanik Voice: -

The inclusion of events from groups affiliated to the NCVA. This is to benefit the wider community.

The inclusion of reports and reviews from affiliated groups to keep you informed.

The inclusion of reports, reviews & other information from non—affiliated groups if it will raise awareness or help the readers of the Vanik Voice. A recent example of this was the special edition that was created about the Ahimsa day awards

Our mission statement -

To raise awareness about issues which affect the Vanik community.

To improve physical, mental, spiritual & emotional well being.

To encourage thought and reflection.

The format of YOUR Vanik Voice -

The second and third pages will include the details of committee members and groups created by and affiliated to the NCVA. The last pages will detail the matrimonial register. Remaining pages will include articles.

If you want to receive the Vanik Voice please send me your email address. Also if you have any articles that you want to submit please email them to VanikVoice@googlemail.com
